California’s Village Movement Responds to COVID-19

A webinar sponsored by Village Movement California and hosted by the California Collaborative for Long Term Services and Supports

Friday, June 5  |  10 – 11 am
Welcome!

Mariya Kalina
California Collaborative for Long Term Services and Supports

Athena Chapman
Chapman Consulting (Moderator)
California’s Village Movement Responds to Covid

Kate Hoepke, Chair, Village Movement California
Charlotte Dickson, Executive Director
The Village Model

• Who we are
• What we do
• Why it matters
New Opportunities

- Rapid Response Network
- Online Connections
- Intergenerational spirit
- Technology
San Francisco Village

- Millennial volunteers
- Mobile app development
- Creative online programs
- Age Self Care UCSF
What did you learn?

• I learned what a Seder is.
• I learned about sexism in the medical field in the 70s!
• How much I take for granted that Wi-Fi and technology are second nature to me.
• Just to take things day by day.
• I learned a lot about the evolution of women's rights throughout history and how the chronology is divided into different waves. It's interesting how changes in society's needs were pivotal in shifting women's historical gender role.
• Empathy
Mobile app development

• Mon Ami: Millennial entrepreneurs
• Leverage partner relationships
• Potential for scale
Programs online

- Virtual Improv Theater
- Shelter in love
- Meditation and tai chi
- Oral storytelling
- Intergenerational Experience Exchange
Age Self Care

- Partner with UCSF
- Educational curriculum
- Agency, resilience, internalized ageism, purpose, caregiving

AGING. BETTER
Village Movement CA

- Convening villages weekly
- Problem solving
- Skill building
- Strategizing
Rural Villages

- Humboldt, Mendocino, Nevada Counties
- Inter-agency partnerships
- Broadband challenges
Pasadena Village

- Technology pivot
- Caregiving
- Partnership with USC
- Age Friendly Community
Discussion

• Prolonged shelter-in-place
• Technology challenges
We envision a society where all stages of life offer meaningful opportunities for growth, connection, and joy, where people of all backgrounds and economic means can age with dignity, purpose, and self-determination.
THANK YOU AND QUESTIONS

Kate Hoepke
kate@sfvillage.org

Charlotte Dickson
charlotte@villagemovmenetcalifornia.org

http:// www.villagemovementcalifornia.org

Select Q&A from your Zoom toolbar to ask a question or make a comment!
THANK YOU!

Is your organization interested in sponsoring a webinar?
Contact Mariya@KalinaInstitute.com for more information!